Mr. Benmergui was one of the most active to date. Along with financing the clubs in the school, he did a lot of work in the community, and is a champion to build a better neighborhood and develop a new school for the school. He provided the Children's Christmas party, and three very successful dances were held during the winter of 1963-64 in Webster and Liverpool.

The Students' Council said we to thank Mr. Benmergui for his help, and Mr. Sivelt for his support and tolerance.

Principal's Message:

Being young is great but age does have its advantages - one of which is that the cyclical nature of things becomes apparent as you grow older. Mankind seems to go forward from crisis to crisis and while the nature of the crises may differ, somehow after awhile they all appear to be the same.

My generation has lived through depression, war, labour unrest and civil disobedience. Each social upheaval seemed to herald the end of everything and yet the earth continues to revolve on its axis and people still manage to laugh, share friendships and revel in life.

Our country is faced with separation, inflation and unemployment. Our school has experienced the pain of split loyalties as staff and students are forced to choose between conflicting points of view. However, the perspective of age gives me the faith that most of you will get to work and solve the problems which will plague society during your lifetime.

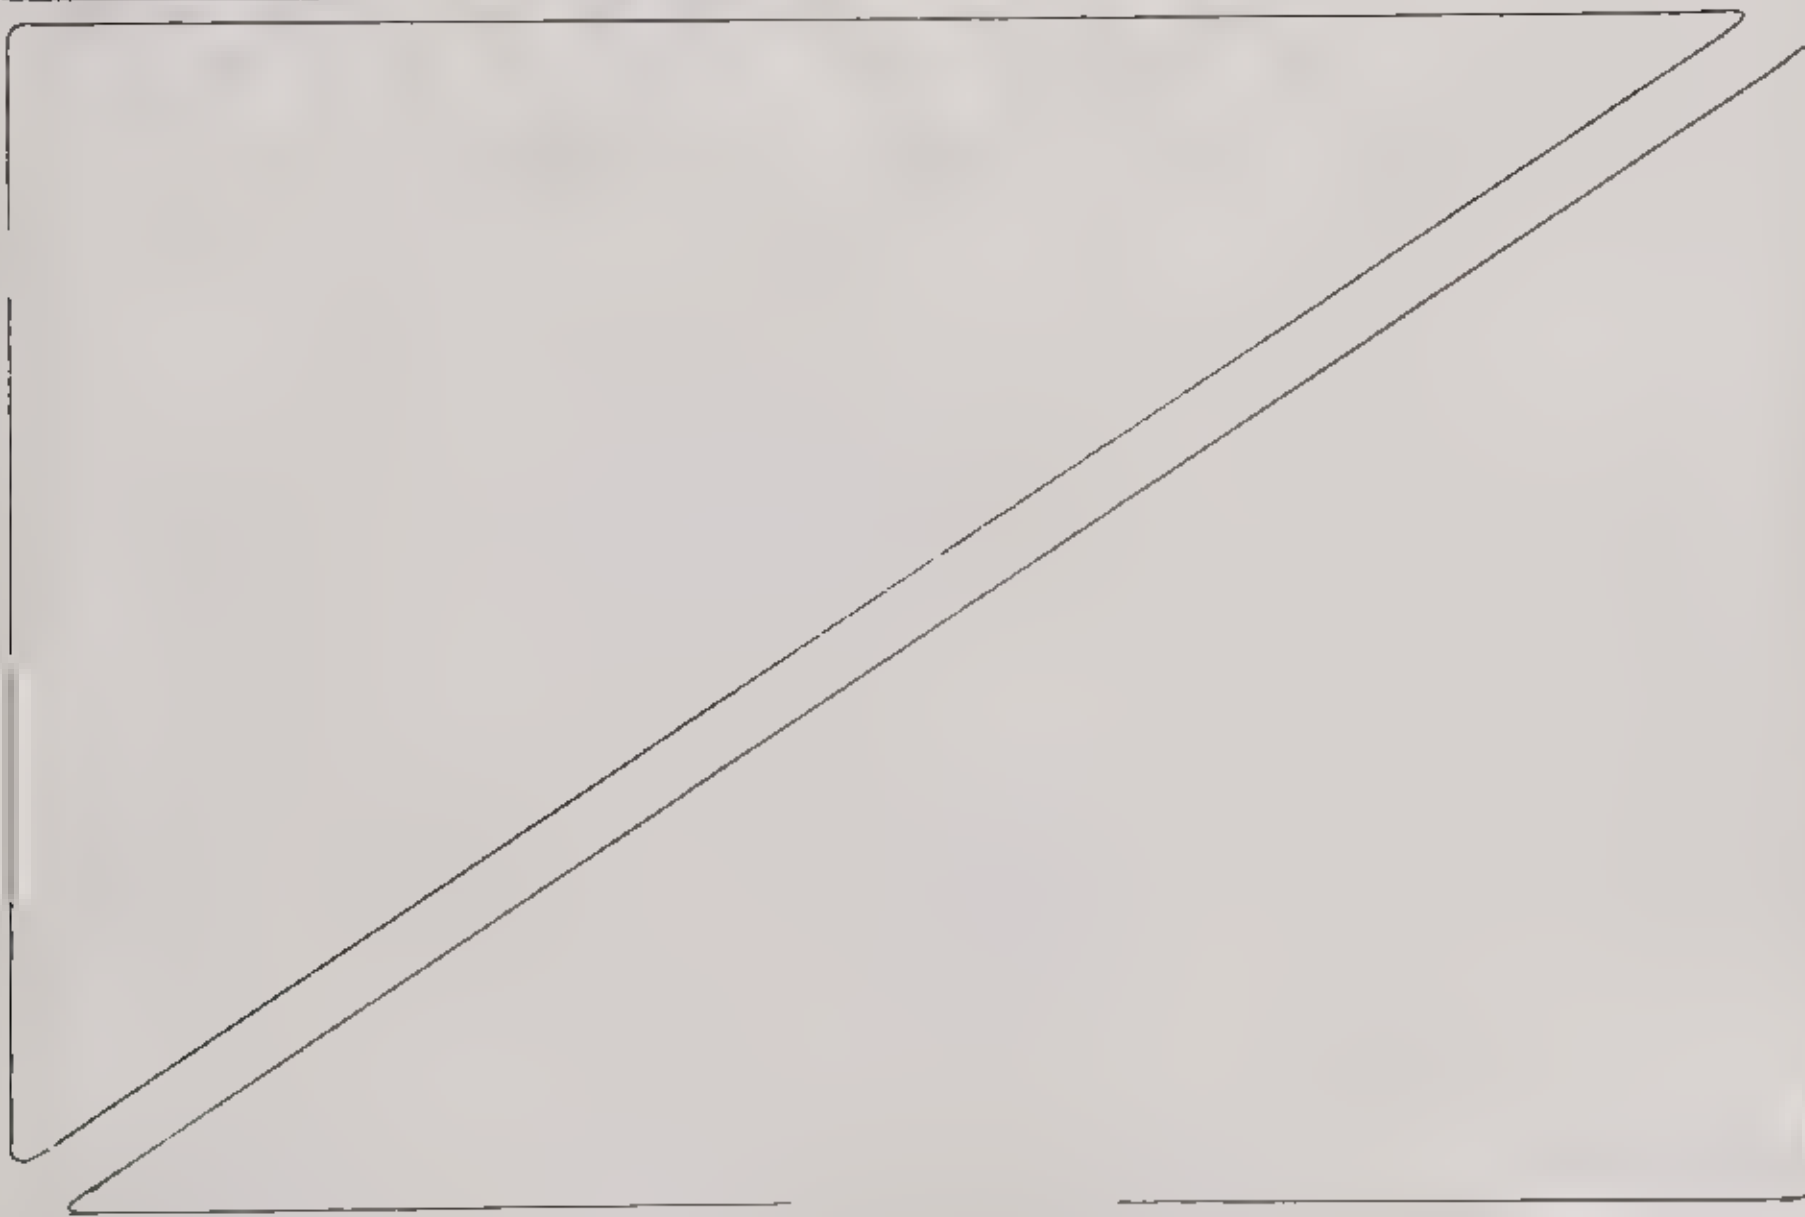

One of the interesting things about the human species is our ability to thrive and enjoy ourselves during periods of adversity. Did you ever notice how people love to reminisce about hardships they have endured. Perhaps by overcoming difficulties we not only gain our objectives but also we gain confidence in ourselves. With confidence, dedication and trust in each other, there is very little that we cannot accomplish.

My thanks to the Yearbook staff who produced this book under such difficult circumstances - you should feel very proud of your accomplishment.

The Royal Trust Company is the largest of all the trust companies in Canada with assets under administration of over $15.0 Billion. The operations of the company encompass a wide field of financial services, including the administration of estates and trusts, the management of investments and real property, acting as real estate brokers, acting as financial agents for individuals and corporations, administration of pension funds, and savings—to name but a few.

In terms of real estate, Royal has grown rapidly since 1961 when it made its first acquisition in the form of Trem Realty of Montreal. Through the establishment of new offices and acquisitions when warranted, Royal now serves the public in every province from St. John's, Nfld. to Victoria B.C. and is now Canada's largest real estate broker coast-to-coast with over 3200 agents in 175 offices. In fact, Royal Trust is now the largest real estate broker in the world.

ARTS

Saturday January 10, 1976 (P.M.)

The sands of time are slipping, slowly slipping past me where I stand.
 I try to hold, to stop it cold, it only slyly slips away, beyond my grasping hand.
 The blazing sun is burning flaming pictures in my eye.
 The pain is gnawing, tears are flowing, but still I cannot look away.
 Around my blue and frozen feet the snow is whispering,
 whispering as it lingers.
 The only warmth to find, is in my eyes, not, alas, around my cold and clasping fingers.

Lorraine Cindy Kryzac

La Solitude Eternelle

Mon imagination est comme une porte qui est fermée à clé. Je dois trouver la clé
 pour partir- sinon, je serai ici
 pour jamais . . .

E.A.D. 77.

La Berceuse

Toute de suite mon petit C'est la nuit enfin Ferme les yeux
 rêve ce que tu veux
 Ta vie est dans ta main.

E.A.D. 77.

SILENCE

No sound of merriment or no solemn string in quiet chat no foot step in no creaking door
no scripping chair no rustling dress
No sound of laughter from a corner no rattling card, no screaming card
no rattling card, no rattling card
no rattling card, no rattling card
No sound of people in the street no clatter of horse, no rattle of feet no words of love, no hate or cries no spoken truth, no whispered lie
No sound of feet turning the lock no squeaking door, no rattling key no rattling key, no rattling key
no rattling key, no rattling key
no rattling key, no rattling key

THE END

MAY 23, 1907

Here I am, my friends
Sipping a hot tea, it's hot
Sipping a hot tea, it's hot
Sipping a hot tea, it's hot

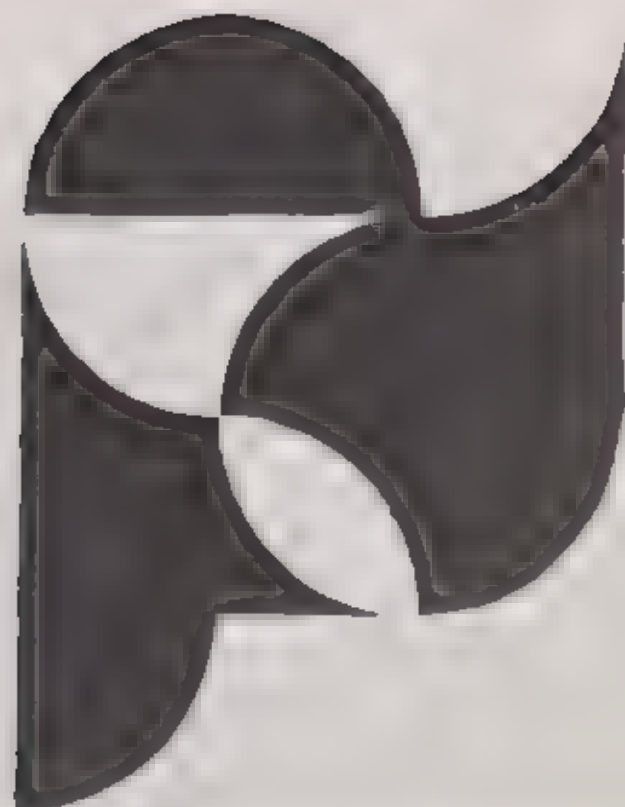

Too green, bitter, and too hot
I don't care, my god, I love it
Sweet, hard, it's so good, it's so hot
The more I eat, the more I love it

Let me have candy, my friends

I've almost Forgotten left from right and the day from the night
 I'm gnarled beside myself
 My consciousness hidden in the hollow of a tree whose name I've forgotten and one sex of the moon is uncertain there are at least two rivers inside of me one is dark and one is clear, but which is which this risk that float inside me is like a raft upon both rivers. I want to capture it but it too, seems far away although inside of me.

Robin Beniz

Manifesto for the Poet

The metal bustle of those busy souls seems so petty and laughable when seen from this perch of perfect poetic laziness. We, the elected vagrants of this universe, feel no need to impose creation upon this world, for we know our joy, our pleasure, is not one of hurried creation but rather of slowly savoured observation and we smile to ourselves over our privileged position, watching the limbs of experience stretch themselves for our enjoyment.

Andy Payne

October 1976

I am just a part of the earth,
With all my hate and anger,
With all my love and mirth.

I am soft and I am warm,
Like the winds before the storm.
My moody gails, like a darkened cloud
Swiftly pass, while thundering loud.

I am like her deserts, for I burn,
I surely am her sister, like her I turn.
She is my only teacher, from her I learn.
And from her wooded bosom is salvation earned.

Lorraine Cindy Drysac

So like you, my love, is the night, diffusing my searchings into its liquid shadows, those most inviting pretenders to substance and form. Its silence speaks with your own eloquent rustlings of motion, its murmur sparking both excitement and fear as I tread its razor path. Even the songs of these summer crickets paint your portrait upon the evening's breath. With their busy idleness, they suggest both your languor and your heated passion, that most beautiful feminine paradox.

Across your flesh, made soft and vague by nocturnal lighting, I chase your promise of a new dawn, knowing well that sleep, induced by your lazy and wanton pleasures, will seduce me before the light of my vision may raise itself.

Stripped of all ambition, naked of expectation, I surrender to your ethereal pleasures, for it is in their mystery, that I may taste of my delicious madness.

Andy Payne

Once again in 1976, Erindale's Senior Football Team was a strong contender for the Peel County crown; but just not strong enough. After two horrendous losses to Lorne Park we still made the playoffs as a wild card team. However, our season ended at Gordon Graydon on the short end of a 20-17 score. In football, one cannot expect to win after fumbling the ball away seven times in one game.

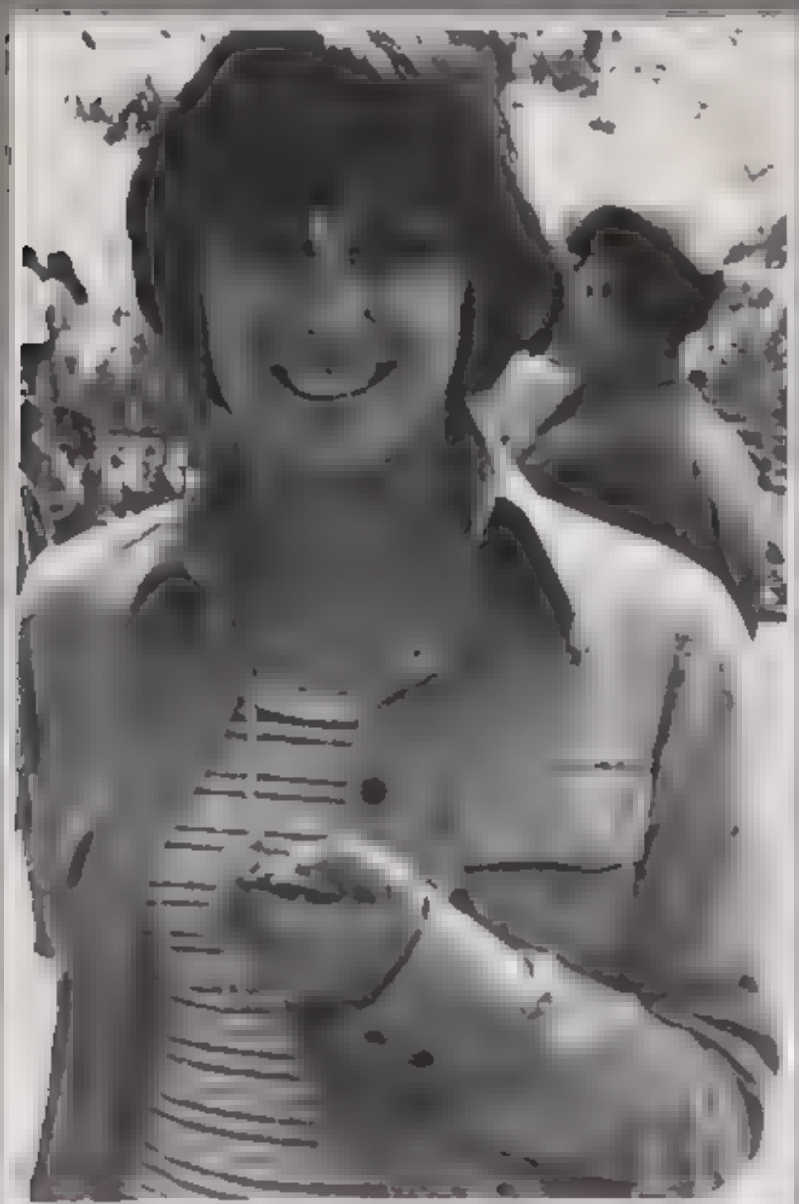

Considering that we finished the season with only twenty-three healthy players and very limited student support, the Raiders performance in 1976 must be called a success.

Field Hockey 1976

Once again the Erindale Field Hockey Team had a spectacular season. For the second consecutive year, the Peel County trophy was brought home to Erindale. In the five league games Erindale scored against them. The semi-final game against Mayfield yielded a 2-0 victory for Erindale. In the final game both Erindale and Lorne Park played a spectacular game. Late in the second half, Erindale edged ahead winning the game 1-0.

Congratulations to all team members and special thanks to our coach and spectators.

PEPSI-COLA BADMINTON TEAM

The girls' badminton team which entered the Canadian Junior Championship was made up of Sheila Forshaw (capt.) Lynn Rogerson, Chris Bishop and Sue Gombita.

Their strong play successfully carried them through the Metro Toronto and Central Ontario playdowns. Erindale was then defeated by last year's winning team, the Woodstock Badminton Club.

PEEL COUNTY SENIOR BASKETBALL CHAMPS

SENIOR GIRLS' BASKETBALL

This year's Erindale team had a very successful season winning the Peel Halton Championship over Oakville Trafalgar. In December, the team representing the Peel-Halton region reached the semi-finals of the All Ontario Tournament that was held in Sarnia. The team would like to thank the students, staff and administration for their support during the season and especially in making the Sarnia trip possible.

GOLF TEAM

The Erindale Golf team was unusual this year as it was composed mainly of younger golfers from the lower grades. Following an 18 hole trial tournament at Hornby Towers G.C., Steve Stremecki, Larry Sharp, Gary Tibshirani, Mike Tyers and Richard Pike emerged with the 5 lowest scores qualifying them for the team.

On a cold, wet, windy Monday in September, the Peel Championship was held at the Brampton Golf and CC. After one round, Erindale was tied for first place with Gordon Graydon. In the sudden death playoff the Erindale team survived jittery tee shots which all ended up in the rough to put the pressure on the opposition with well placed approach shots. Strong putting finished the playoff on the first extra hole and the Erindale Golf Team emerged with the first County team championship for the school in 1976-77.

Inconsistent golf plagued the team at the Peel-Halton championships and they were to qualify for the Ontario final.

AS ANOTHER YEAR COMES TO AN END

YEARBOOK STAFF

1977

Every year a yearbook staff faces the challenge of producing a good quality and memorable yearbook. This year's staff worked together under the watchful eye of Mr. D. Kent and the flashing camera lens of Mr. R. Dewey to produce one of the best yearbooks yet. The staff also increased advertising and sales to a level Erindale has not seen in years. Towards the end the staff worked as a team to not only produce the yearbook as close to the deadline as possible, but to produce a high standard book.

Thanks goes to the yearbook staff, the Homeroom sales representatives and teachers who made this yearbook a school wide project.

Special Thanks to Mr. D. Kent
Mr. R. Dewey
Mr. J. Rusnyck
Miss B. Irani
Miss C. McDermot
Mrs. K. Mallaney
Homeroom Representatives
The Office Staff
The STUDENTS' COUNCIL
And Mr. Sivell for some encouraging words and lots of faith.
